This 15 Minute Short, We Are What We Eat (part .25), is an attempt to show some of the characters and topics I've been accumulating in the process of making a film about agriculture. 15 minutes is an impossible amount of time to even scratch the surface of our relationship with agriculture but I was at a point where I needed to see how the story might take shape through this mosaic of expertise and wisdom. It may not be a fair representation of where I'll end up and it's definitely missing all the beautiful farm stock I intend to shoot this coming harvest, however if you find it compelling, then I've succeeded thus far. It has encouraged me to persevere. Thanks.
